

Kathy Shore Joins Kenco Realty Group As An Associate

Boca Raton, FL– (Aug. 24, 2010) – Kenco Realty Group, a full-service real estate brokerage firm recently launched by Kenco Communities, welcomes Kathy Shore of Boca Raton as Sales Associate. In this position, Shore will assist buyers and sellers with all types of property acquisition and sales throughout South Florida.

For many years, Kathy was one of the most successful sales professionals involved in the sale of new home developments. With an extensive background and experience in all price ranges and product types, she is well known and well connected with area builders, developers, real estate brokers, mortgage lenders and real estate attorneys.

Her latest position as the Manager of the Resale Division of The Oaks at Boca Raton Realty Inc., and her long established relationship with Kenco Communities has led to her newest real estate venture with Kenco Realty Group.

Kathy has held a Florida Real Estate license for 25 years and has focused on Palm Beach, Dade, and Broward County residential real estate for her entire career.

About Kenco Realty Group
